The on-line service for free true random numbers will be down temporarily while we upgrade our service. A date for the upgrade has not been set. We are currently evaluating the new version.

During the testing, the random number service is not available publicly.

The new and updated download of random numbers is now on-line.

You can now also download encryption sheets 8) 8) 8)

A general improvement is the function to download the numbers to a file.
